Step 1: Check in (see Harrow for timeslot if you don't know yours)

Step 2: Go to your assigned room

Step 3: Do not enter the room until one of your board members indicates that it's your turn

Step 4: Smile, greet them, and pass out your letters

DO NOT FORGET YOUR PRINTED LETTERS
Step 5: While the board members read over your letters, you will set up your visual

(It is OK to ask for help with the Promethean, projector, computer, etc.)

Step 6: The board will explain the timekeeping, then will indicate when you may begin

Step 7: Be awesome for 7-10 minutes

Step 8: Answer questions awesomely for 2-3 more minutes
How to act...

Exceedingly Polite. It's OK to be nervous, it's not OK to seem bored, disinterested, or rude.

Smiling helps.

How to dress...

Business Attire.
For Guys...

1. Dress shirt
   ○ this means a button down
   ○ try to avoid really flashy patterns
   ○ solid, neutral colors like white, black, blue are best

2. Tie (bowtie is OK)
   ○ Any color or pattern is OK but...
   ○ Don't mix/match patterns with your shirt
   ○ Don't wear a novelty tie

3. Dress slacks
   ○ suit pants are good
   ○ a full suit is great but not a must
   ○ khakis are OK in a pinch
   ○ jeans or athletic wear are not acceptable
Dudes continued

4. For the love of God, DO NOT WEAR WHITE SOCKS

Your socks should match or complement the color pants you have on.

5. Dress shoes

6. A belt

Pro-tip: your belt and shoes should match

When in doubt, ASK YOUR MOM IF YOU LOOK NICE. SHE LOVES YOU AND WILL NOT LIE TO YOU ABOUT THIS. LISTEN TO HER.
For Ladies...
Things that are Good

Pantsuits slacks

Dress skirts (like the bottom half of a skirt suit)
  ○ In both cases, a jacket or sweater looks nice

Dress shirts/blouses

Professional dresses

Patterns/colors are more OK for y'all, but don't get too crazy
Things that are Bad

- Cleavage
- Visible Bra Straps
- Visible Underwear
- Skirts that aren't knee-length
- T-shirts/Halter tops/ Camis (unless it's under a jacket)
- Anything see-through
- Ripped tights/pantyhose
- Jeans
HAIR AND SHOES

Hair should be out of your face. Put it up, pin it, whatever.

Heels are encouraged.

If heels are going to kill you, do not wear them - go with a nice, dressy flat.

Close-toed shoes are better than open-toed, but open-toed can be good as long as they're nice.

Avoid sandals unless they are like the $98273 kind from Prada

No wedges. No wedges. No wedges.
